Jesus saw ten men who were sick. These poor men had leprosy. Leprosy eats away the skin. A leper can lose fingers, toes, and hair. The person can go blind.

Lepers had to live together, away from everyone else. It was a sad and painful life.

The ten lepers saw Jesus. They begged and yelled, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

Jesus stopped. He said, "Go show the priests that you are well."

As the men went on their way, they were healed! One of the lepers ran back. He fell on his face at Jesus' feet. In a loud voice, he praised God.

Jesus said, "Didn't I heal ten men? Where are the other nine? Why have they not returned to give glory to God?"

Then Jesus said to the man, "Get up and go your way. Your faith has made you well."

32. Jesus Heals Ten Men

Luke 17:11-19 World English Bible (WEB)

As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee.

As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance.

They lifted up their voices, saying,

“Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

When he saw them, he said to them,

“Go and show yourselves to the priests.”

As they went, they were cleansed.

One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice.

He fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan.

Jesus answered, “Weren’t the ten cleansed?

But where are the nine? Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?”

Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."
