Part 4 29. Friends Bring a Crippled Man to Jesus

Easy Read English

Jesus was teaching in a home. Many people came to hear him. They jammed inside.

Four men carried a crippled friend on a mat. He could not walk. They wanted to see Jesus, but there was no room.

The friends carried the crippled man to the top of the roof. The men dug and dug. They made a hole in the roof. With great care, they lowered their friend down the hole - right in front of Jesus. Jesus saw their faith. He said, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

Some teachers of the law got mad. In their minds they said, "Who does Jesus think he is? Only God can forgive sins."

Jesus knew what was in their hearts. He said, "Why are you thinking these things? I want you to know that I can forgive sins."

So, he said to the man, "Get up, take your mat, and go home."

The crippled man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and ran home. He praised God with all his heart.

Everyone was amazed. They shouted, "We have never seen anything like this!" They praised God.

29. Friends Bring a Crippled Man to Jesus Vocabulary
Luke 5:17-26 World English Bible (WEB)

On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem.

The power of the Lord was with him to heal them.

Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Jesus.

Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before Jesus.

Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies?

Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?"

Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?'

But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins

(he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, take up your cot, and go to your house."

Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God.

Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."
