Part 4 Jesus Loves a Short, Bad Man Easy Read English

Most people in Jericho hated Zacchaeus. He was in charge of the tax collectors. He took more money than he should have. Jesus walked into Jericho. Happy crowds followed him.

Zacchaeus tried to see Jesus. But, he could not see over the people. Zacchaeus was a short man. He jumped. Still, he could not see. He got a plan. Zacchaeus ran to a tree. He climbed up. Now, he could see Jesus as he walked past. Jesus stopped. He looked up and saw Zacchaeus.

Jesus said, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down. Today, I must stay at your house."

Zacchaeus could not believe it! His selfish heart became soft. He climbed down the tree quickly. "Jesus at my house?" he thought with joy.

The people grumbled, "Jesus is going to the house of a sinner."

Zacchaeus said, "Lord, I will give half of all I own to the poor. If I have cheated anyone, I will pay back four times as much." He was very rich.

Jesus said, "Today, this lost man is saved. For I have come to seek and save the lost."

Questions

3. Jesus takes time for people who are without friends. Who is without a friend in your life? Can you try to become friends with him or her?
4. What did Zaccheaus do to show that his heart had been changed? What can you do?

Prayer

Dear Jesus,
You became a friend to those whom others hated. You are a heart changer. Please change my heart too. Help me to love the lost, the hated, the hurting.
Help me to show my love for you by becoming a giver.
Amen

Write some of the words Zaccheaus said after his heart had been changed.

Jesus Loves a Short, Bad Man

Luke 19:1-10 World English Bible (WEB)

He entered and was passing through Jericho.

There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short.

He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way.

When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him,

"Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully.

When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor.

If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.

For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."
