33. Lazarus Lives Again John 11 (selected verses)
World English Bible (WEB)

Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, in the village of Mary and her sister, Martha.

But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it."

So, when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb for four days already.
Therefore, Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."

Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life.
He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies.

Do you believe this?"

She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, who has come into the world."

The Jews were with her in the house and were consoling her.

Therefore, when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn’t have died.” Jesus wept.

Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

Jesus said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

So, they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.

He cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Therefore, many of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did believed in him.
