Part 4 Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

EasyReadEnglish

Jesus went to rest in a quiet place far from the city. A crowd ran after him. He healed them. He taught them. They loved Jesus.

The people sat on the grass and listened until night. They were like lost sheep. Soon, they got hungry. Jesus felt sorry for them.

“We can’t feed so many people,” Philip said.

A kind person gave up his lunch. The food was five little loaves of bread and two tiny fish. It wasn’t much, but it was all he had.

“How far will this go with such a big crowd?” Andrew asked. He was another disciple.

Jesus took the food and thanked God. The disciples gave out the bread and fish. Food just kept coming and coming out of the baskets! More than five thousand people were fed. They were full. There were 12 baskets of extra food.

“This man must be from God,” some people said. They knew it was a miracle.

Who gave Jesus his lunch? It was a little boy. This child had a big heart and giving hands.

Questions

1. What did Jesus do with the little lunch?

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

John 6:1-14 World English Bible (WEB)

After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias.

A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick.

Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples.

Now, the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"

He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may receive a little."

One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now, there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired.

When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost."

So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.

When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world."
