Part 4 A Woman Washes Jesus' Feet

EasyReadEnglish

Jesus ate dinner with his friends. A woman came to the house. She came with her own perfume. It cost a lot of money.

In tears, she poured the perfume over Jesus' feet. The whole house smelled sweet.

She wiped Jesus' feet with her long hair. She cried and kissed his feet. She felt sorry for her sins.

Judas was a disciple. He yelled, "That perfume cost a lot of money! She should have sold it. Then, she should have given the money to the poor."

"Leave her alone," Jesus said. "She did a beautiful thing to me. She did what she could.

"You will always have poor people with you. But, you will not always have me with you."

The woman did this for a reason. An important reason. Jesus was about to die. The woman was getting him ready to be buried.

"Truly, I tell you," Jesus said, "what she has done will be told around the world."

And it has.

A Woman Washes Jesus' Feet

Mark 14:3-9 World English Bible (WEB)

While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly.

She broke the jar, and poured it over his head.

But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, “Why has this ointment been wasted?

For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor.”

So they grumbled against her.

But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me.

For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me.

She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.

Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."
