Part 4 24. The Lost Son Easy Read English

Jesus told this story: A man had two sons. The younger son said, "Father, give me my part of your money right now. I will not wait until you die." So, the father gave the son his money.

The son ran off to a city far away. He spent money on parties, drinks, and women. Soon his money was gone, and so were his friends.

The young man got hungry. No one gave him anything. He asked a farmer for a job. He had to feed the pigs. Even the pigs' nasty food looked good to the hungry man. He thought, "I will go back and ask my father for a job."

He walked all the way home. The father saw him coming down the road and ran to his son. The father hugged him. "Father, I have sinned," said the son.

The father kissed him and held a big party. "I thought my son was dead, but he is alive! He was lost and now is found."

The older son heard the music. He yelled, "It's not fair! I have been a good son. I never got a party."

The father said, "Son, all that I have is yours. But let's be happy. Your brother was dead and is alive. He was lost and is found!"

Questions

1. What happened when the son went to live in a city far away?
2. How did the father act when his son came home?
3. How is the father in the story like our father in heaven?
4. If you have ever been lost and then found, how did you feel?

Prayer

Dear Father in heaven,
Thank you for forgiving me when I sin and wander away from you. Thank you for letting me always return home to your loving, forgiving, happy arms.
Amen

Write on the son your name.
Also write, "Alive, found, home, back with God."
Write on the Father,
"My loving Father God."

The Lost Son

Luke 15:11-32 World English Bible (WEB)

He said, "A certain man had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of your property.' So, he divided his livelihood between them. Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.” “He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and he ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ “But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet. Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let’s eat, and celebrate; for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’ Then they began to celebrate. “Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing.

He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore, his father came out, and begged him. But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this your son came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.' "He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.'"
