One of Jesus' disciples asked, "Lord, teach us to pray."

Jesus said: "When you pray, say:

Our Father in heaven, may your name be set apart as holy. May your kingdom come. May what you want to happen really happen. May this will of yours be done on earth, just like your will is done in heaven.

Give us our bread to eat every day.

Forgive us our sins. Forgive us in the same way that we forgive those who sin against us.

Help us so that we are not tempted to sin. Save us from the evil one.

For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen."

Questions

1. What did Jesus ask for in this famous prayer?

2. How can you set God's name apart as holy?

Prayer

Christians all over the world say the Lord's Prayer. This version in Matthew 6:9-13 is much-loved and traditional, using old-fashioned words: "art" means "is"; "hallowed" means "holy"; "thy" means "your"; a "trespass" is a "sin"; and "thine" means "yours". Write the new English words under the old English words.

Jesus said, "Pray like this:

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever.

Amen."

26. The Lord's Prayer Phrased for Fluency

One of Jesus' disciples asked, "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus said:

"When you pray, say: Our Father in heaven, may your name be set apart as holy. May your kingdom come. May what you want to happen really happen. May this will of yours be done on earth, just like your will is done in heaven. Give us our bread to eat every day. Forgive us our sins. Forgive us in the same way that we forgive those who sin against us.

Help us so that we are not tempted to sin. Save us from the evil one.

For yours is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.”

The Lord's Prayer

Luke 11:1-4; Matthew 6:31b World English Bible (WEB)

When he finished praying in a certain place,
one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."

He said to them, "When you pray, say,

Our Father in heaven,

may your name be kept holy.

May your kingdom come.

May your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive
everyone who is indebted to us.

Bring us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.'

For yours is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen"
