Some Jewish leaders were mad at Jesus. They didn't understand why he welcomed sinners. They grumbled and said, "He even eats with sinners."

So, Jesus told them a story: "Let's say a man has 100 sheep, and one sheep gets lost. Will he leave the 99 sheep to go look for the lost sheep? Yes.

"The shepherd will call the sheep by name. He will climb up and down mountains. He will look until he finds that lost sheep. When he finds the sheep, he will pick it up and carry it home with joy. He will call all his friends and neighbors and shout, 'Rejoice with me! I have found my sheep that was lost!'

"I tell you, it is the same in heaven. There is happiness in heaven when one sinner says he is sorry for his sins. There is joy with the angels when one sinner comes home to God."

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. Jesus does not want one little sheep to wander away from him.

Questions

1. What does the shepherd do when one of his sheep goes missing?
2. How does the good shepherd feel when he finds his lost sheep?
3. How are people like the sheep in this story?
4. How can you stay close to your good shepherd, Jesus?

Prayer

Dear Jesus,
I know that I am a sinner.
Still, you found me and welcomed me home.
Please help me to stay
close to you.
Amen

Write your name on the lamb.
Write Jesus' name on the Shepherd.
Write in the arms of Jesus how you can stay close to him.

The Lost Sheep Phrased for Fluency

Some Jewish leaders were mad at Jesus. They didn't understand why he welcomed sinners.

They grumbled and said,

“He even eats with sinners.”

So, Jesus told them a story: “Let's say a man has 100 sheep, and one sheep gets lost. Will he leave the 99 sheep to go look for the lost sheep? Yes.

“The shepherd will call the sheep by name. He will climb up and down mountains.

He will look until he finds that lost sheep. When he finds the sheep, he will pick it up and carry it home with joy. He will call all his friends and neighbors and shout, 'Rejoice with me! I have found my sheep that was lost!' "I tell you, it is the same in heaven. There is happiness in heaven when one sinner says he is sorry for his sins. The Lost Sheep

Luke 15:1-7;10 World English Bible (WEB)

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him.

The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, “This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them.”

He told them this parable.

“Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it?

When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'

I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.

Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."
