1.7 Story: Splish Splash (Noah's Ark, Part 1) (sh)

I Read, You Read Bible Story

As the world filled with people, God's heart broke.

God was sad.

Why? Because so many of them had been bad, bad, bad.

They hurt and killed each other. Only Noah was good. God is all love but he could not let the badness go on.

God said, "I must crush men. I am so mad.

I will wipe out every person and animal.

But I am not mad at Noah."

Noah had three sons: Japheth,

Ham, and Shem. God said, "I wish to begin fresh."

God told Noah to make an ark. What is an ark?

It is a big, big ship.

Noah said, "Rush, stash. Stash the dish on the shelf and food for our family and the animals that God will bring."

In a dash, in a rush. Squish into the ship. Crash! Flash!

Thunder, lightning, and rain, rain, rain.

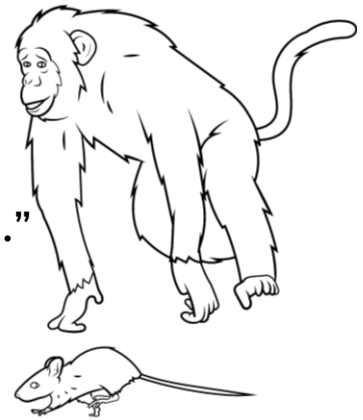

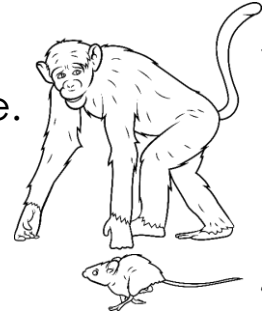

God shut the big door of the ship. Crash! Rush!

Slosh, gush, smash, trash. Swish went the fish.

Splish, splash... up, up, up went the ship. Shock, hushhhh...

All was quiet. All was gone, except for Noah and his family.

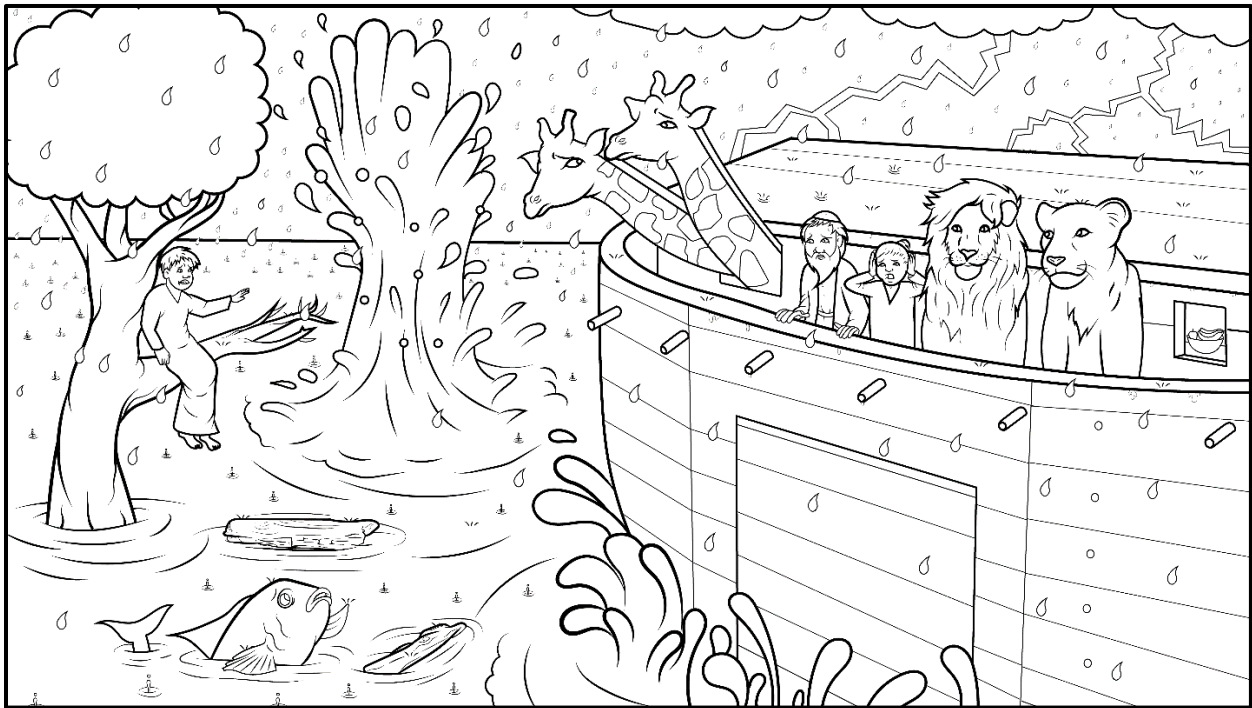

They were safe in the ark while the world floated away. The End

Bible Extension Activities: Why Did God Flood the Earth?

In this activity, kids will build and then destroy a tower of sand.

Prepare: Bring in two buckets, (one with sand) and a few cups to use as scoops. Bring in a pitcher to use with water.

Ask: Have you ever seen someone explode at someone else? What is the story behind the story? That anger has probably been growing for days or even years. Why did God become so angry with humans? Read aloud Genesis 6:1-13. If possible, use the New International Readers' version.

<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=genesis+6&version=NIRV>

Ask: What did people do that filled God's heart with pain? Say: Let's build a tower out of sand. The tower will represent God's heart filling with pain.

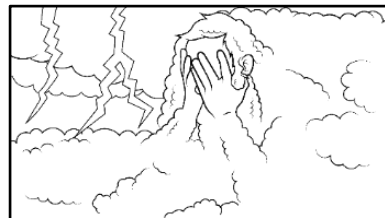

Do: As the kids list the people's sins, they scoop a cup of sand one at a time into a hill of sand. Say: God's anger and sadness and disappointment had built up, up, up to the point that he was DONE! He was heart-broken! Read Genesis 6:7: "So the Lord said, "I created human beings, but I will wipe them out... I am very sad that I have made human beings."

Talk about sins we do today as individuals and as a society. Use the water to wash away the tower of sand. Each child will want to take a turn.

Extend the Fun: Use the picture below (full size on the next page). In the clouds, have your students write this poem or make one up of their own. Have them use a pen and then let the words dry. With crayons, they can color the clouds gray, white, different colors of blue. Poem: God was full of sadness. Why? Because the world was full of badness. I will obey like Noah did. Help me, Lord! I'm just a kid.

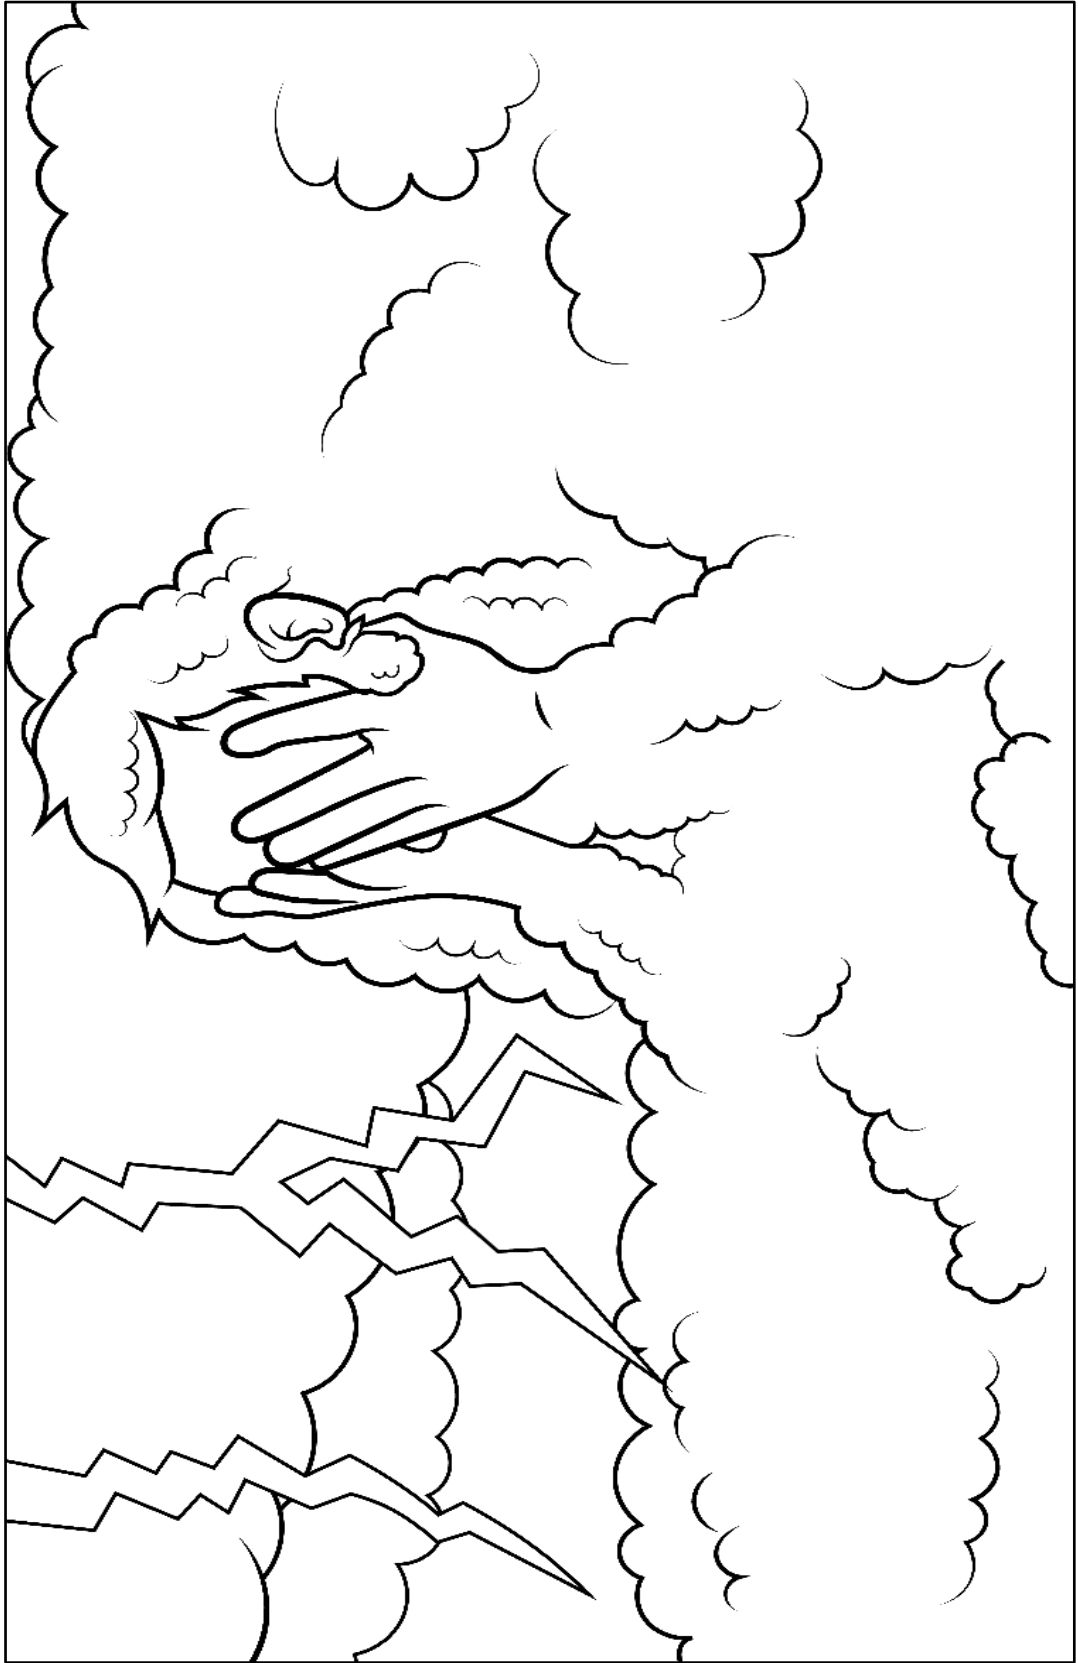

Note: Some might feel as though depicting God as below violates the second commandment. Read all of Exodus 20:4-6(KJV). verse 4: "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth." BUT... remember the reason behind the rule. The next verse explains more: "Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them." Certainly, we would not allow the children to bow down to their pictures. Children need concrete images and ideas to learn well. Our invisible God can be hard for them to grasp. If you are not comfortable with the image below, then have the children just draw clouds and perhaps lightning.

Note: We also provide an alternative picture as an option to replace in the PPTs.

The Broken Heart of Our Good God

Write this poem in the clouds in pen and then color over it: God was full of sadness. Why? Because the world was full of badness. I will obey like Noah did. Help me, Lord! I'm just a kid.

Bible Extension Activities: Two by Two, God Will Help You Too

In this activity, kids will match animal pictures to learn about God's help.

Prepare: Photocopy two copies of both sets of animals on the front and the verse blocks on the back of the pages. If you print onto cardstock, the game will be easier and last longer. Cut the cards

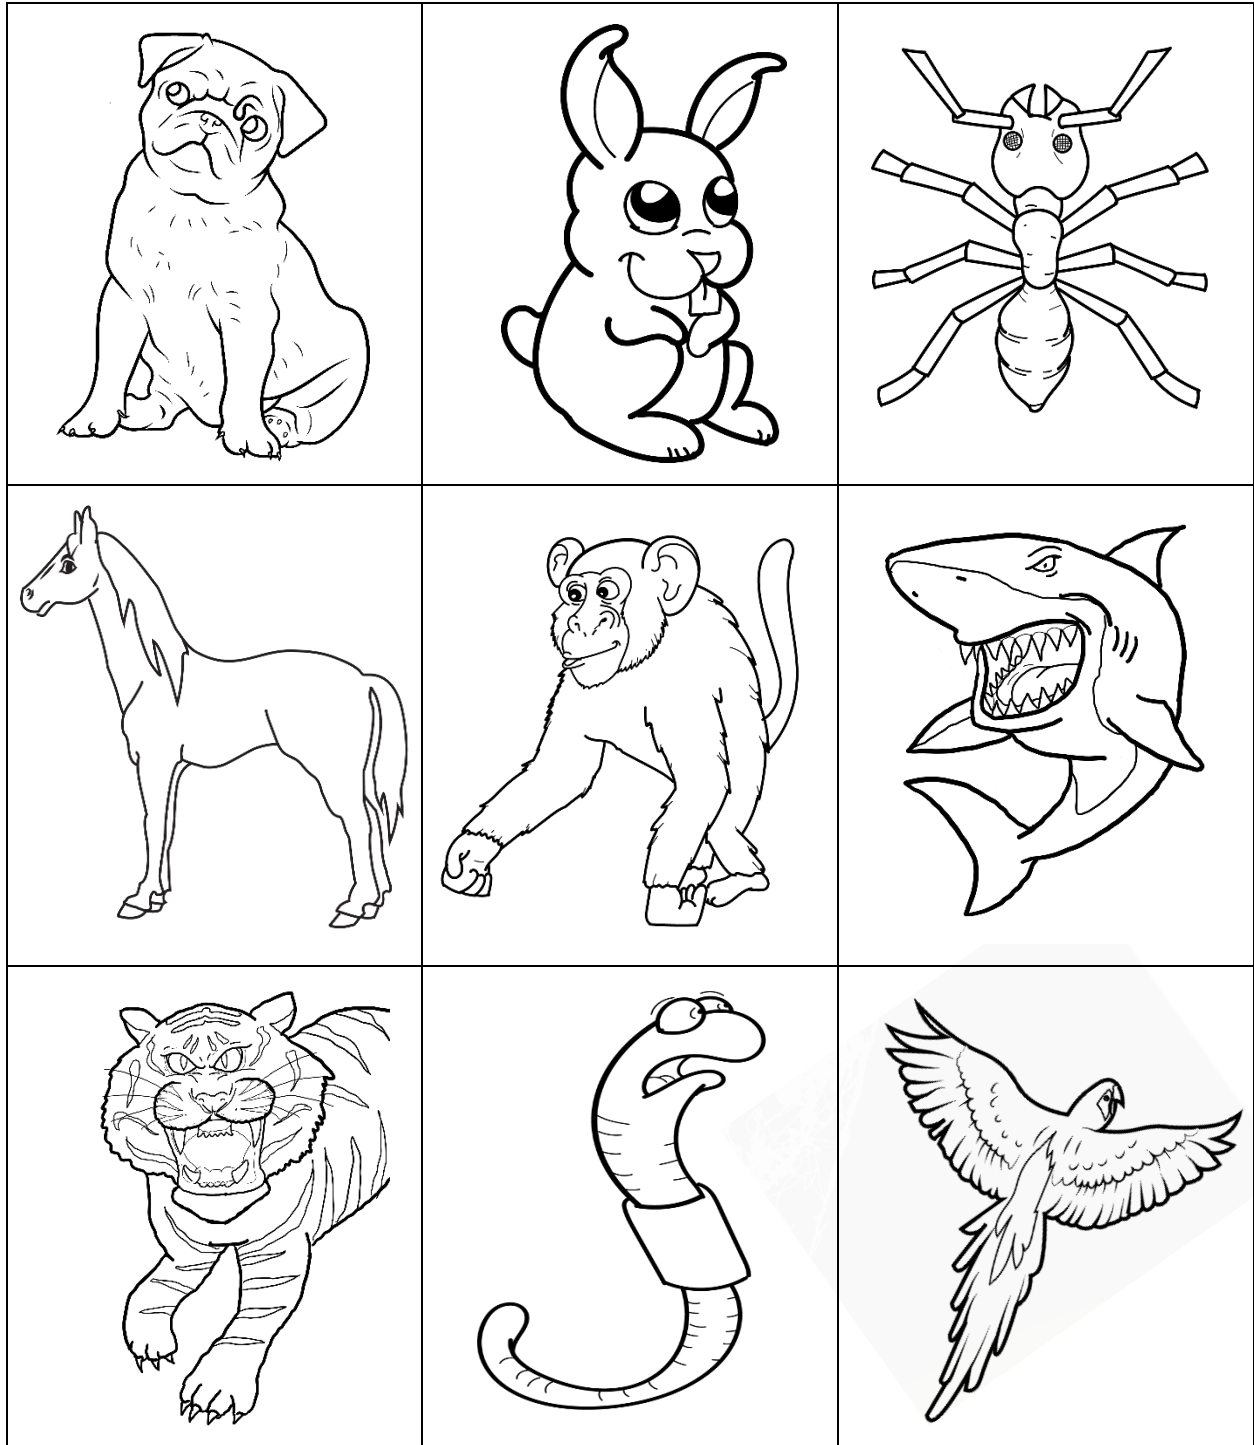

Ask: What did God ask Noah to do? How do you think he felt about that? Has God ever asked you to do a job that is hard or scary? Say: Maybe God wants you to sit with a child who is always alone at lunch. Maybe God is asking you to read your Bible every morning. Ask: What do you think he is asking YOU to do? Has God ever helped you obey him? How?

Say: The good news is that God will help you obey him. Read Genesis 6:17-22 and Genesis 7: 13-16. Ask: Did Noah have to tromp into the woods and trap a male and female bear? Did he or his sons have to climb through a jungle and lure two monkeys on board the ark? Say: What does verse 7:8-9 say? God brought the animals TO Noah, two by two. Two by two, God will help you too!

Look up 1 Chronicles 28. Say: Many years later, Solomon, the new king of Israel, was chosen to build a temple, a sanctuary for the Lord. Like building the ark, that was a huge task. His father David encouraged him with these words: "The Lord has chosen you. Be strong and do the work. God will enable you to understand all the details of the plan. Be strong and courageous and do the work. Do not be afraid of discouraged. God will not fail you."

Play a game of concentration. Lay out the sets of cards with the animals facing down. The children will turn cards over, two by two. If the set matches, they can keep it. Some rules say that if you match a set, you can go again. Who earned the most sets before the sets ran out? Each time you make a match, say the verses on the back of the cards: God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.

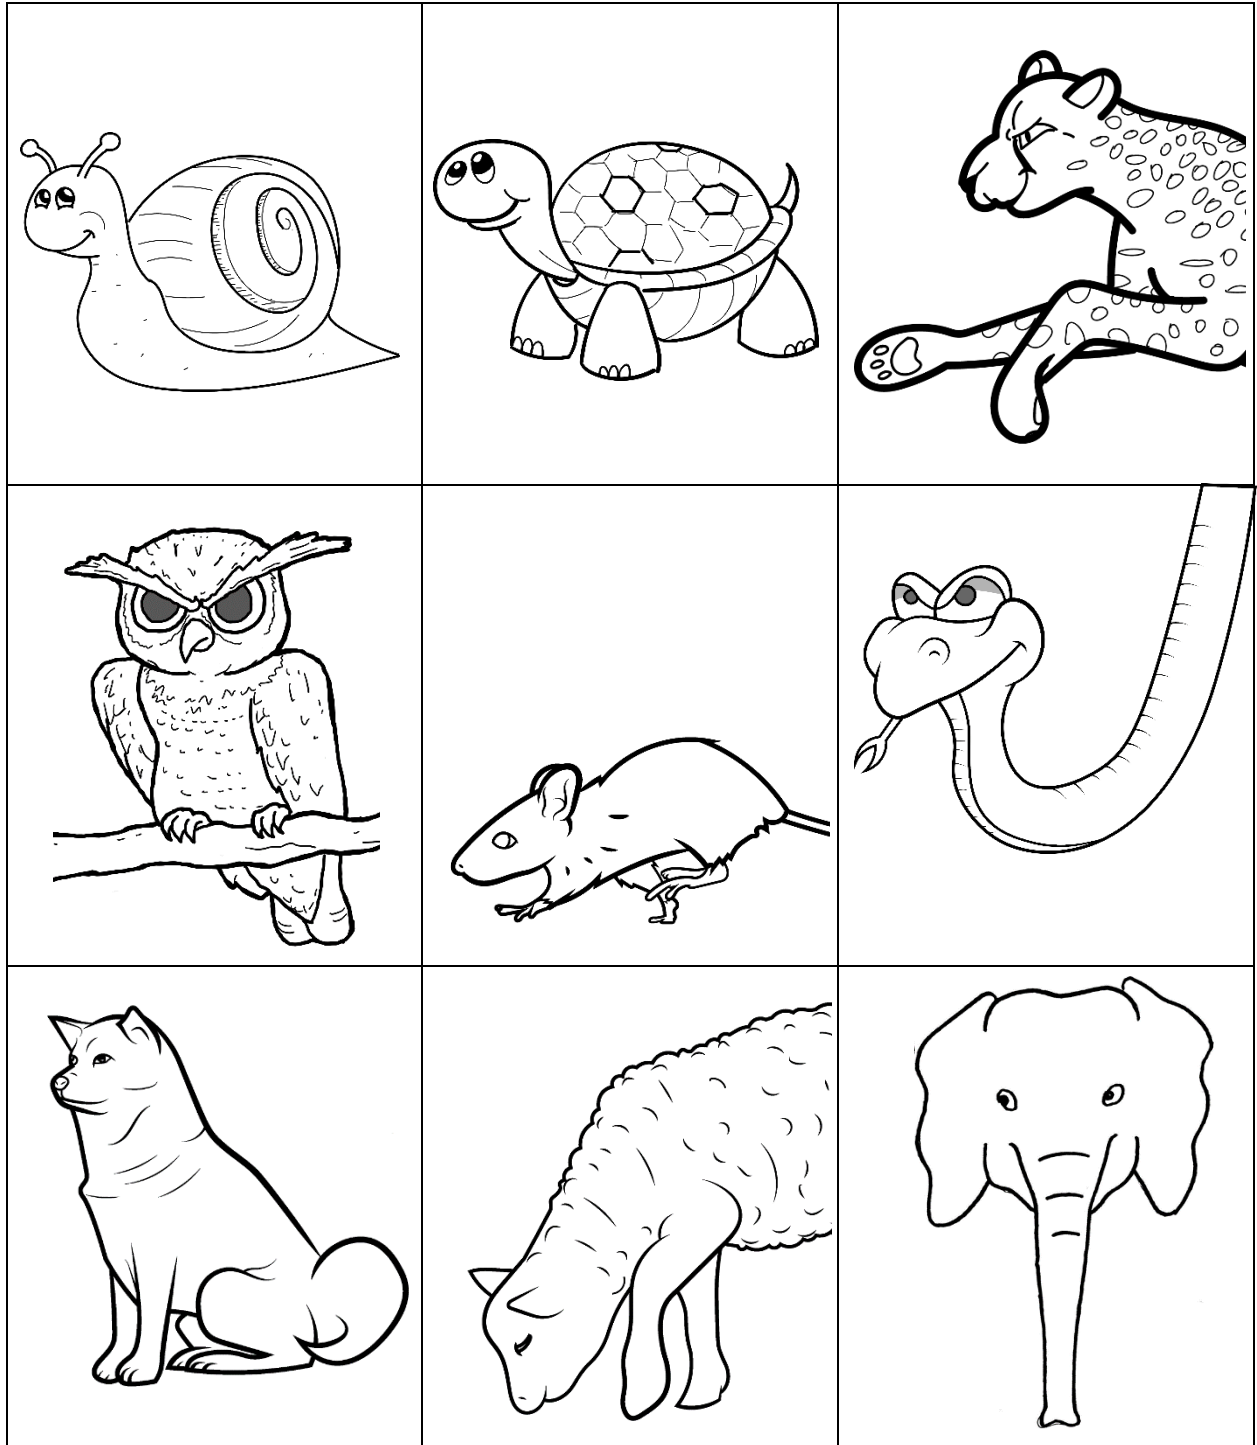

Photocopy into pairs to play concentration.

Photocopy onto the back of the animal pages.

God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.	God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.	God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.
God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.	God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.	God chose you. He will help you. Be strong and do the work.

Noah Obeyed and I Will Too!

Photocopy this page onto card stock, one for each student. The kids will write this verse on the back of this page in large letters, filling the page. Then they will cut it into pieces and hand those pieces to partner who will do the same. Race to build the puzzle and memorize the verse: Noah did everything, just as God commanded him. Genesis 6:22
