

Sad, Old Sarah

Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7

Get READY! Part 1 Level 2 Story 7 Sad, Old Sarah Funny Phonogram o-l-d hold

h

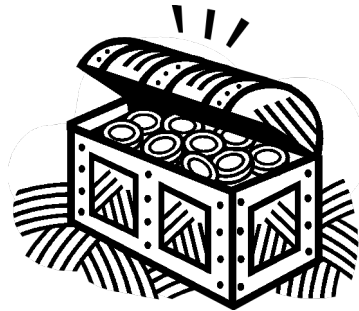

hold

Hold my hand.

gold

I see lots of gold.

old

The man is old.

told

He told her no.

Get SET! Part 2 Level 2 Story 7 Sad, Old Sarah
 Words in Syllable Types

Digraphs aqua	Closed short a stop	Closed short e	Closed short i
quick much she wish them this thing three when	sad had dad glad am can -band	men when them tell get yes	it sit him did this quick will still wish milk
Closed short o	Closed short u	Open long vowel go	silent e long vowel cave
not hot God mom	but much cups hus-	l no we me he she	came
Vowel Teams long vowel eat	vowel-r orange	closed longies cold	-ng, -nk bank, thing
see tree three too goo	for her	old told hold	thing

New Words

good why by

Hard Words

baby

Super Hard Words

Sarah bread laugh love

Rule Breakers

a	from	to
you	come	do
the	some	give
is	have	laugh
love	was

Multi-Syllable Words

Broken into syllables	Full Words	Broken into syllables	Full Words
1. rab bit words		2. ant eater compound words
hus band	husband	some thing	something

Sad, Old Sarah Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7

Part 4 GO! READ Story in Easy Read English Fluency Builder

I love you.

I love you too. BUT, I am sad.

I wish I had a baby to hold.

I wish we had a baby too.

BUT...when? I am too old. I am 99.

I am too old too. I am 90.

“I see three men,” he told her.

The men came from God.

Come. Sit by the tree. It is hot.

Quick, we have some men.

Have some bread.

Get much milk for them. Get some cups too.

We will tell you something good.

Sarah will have a baby.

No. No. Not me. I am too old.

Why did Sarah laugh?

“God can do this,” he told her.

I did not laugh.

Yes, you did.

“Yes, I did,” she told him.

Will God still give me a baby?

Yes. God will still give you a baby.

God is good! God is good to me.

Sarah did have a baby.

She had a baby to hold.

I am a mom! She was glad.

I am the dad! Her husband was glad too.

The baby laughed too...goo, goo!

Part 4 GO! READ Story in Easy Read English Fluency Builder

Sad, Old Sarah Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7

I love you. I love you too. BUT, I am sad.

I wish I had a baby to hold.

I wish we had a baby too.

BUT...when? I am too old. I am 99.

I am too old too. I am 90.

"I see three men," he told her.

The men came from God.

Come. Sit by the tree. It is hot.

Quick, we have some men.

Have some bread.

Get much milk for them. Get some cups too.

We will tell you something good.

Sarah will have a baby.

No. No. Not me. I am too old.

Why did Sarah laugh? "God can do this," he told her.

I did not laugh. Yes, you did. "Yes, I did," she told him.

Will God still give me a baby?

Yes. God will still give you a baby.

God is good! God is good to me.

Sarah did have a baby. She had a baby to hold.

I am a mom! She was glad.

I am the dad! Her husband was glad too.

The baby laughed too...goo, goo!