Jesus and his disciples came to a village. Martha welcomed Jesus into her home. She had a sister named Mary.

“I will make a nice meal for Jesus,” Martha said. She swept the floor. She lit the fire. She fried the fish. Her feet hurt. Martha got tired...and mad.

Mary just sat there at the feet of Jesus. She loved to listen to Jesus talk. Mary asked him questions. He answered. Mary was learning.

Martha had no time to sit and listen. She was busy working and serving.

She went to Jesus. “Lord, my sister has left me to do all the work by myself!” Martha grumbled. “Don’t you care? Tell her to help me!”

“Martha, Martha,” Jesus replied, “you are worried and upset about many things. But only one thing is needed.

Mary has chosen what is best, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Part 5 Martha Gets Mad

Luke 10:38-42 World English Bible (WEB)

As they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was distracted with much servicing, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."
